VIRGINIA'S DOORS SWING OPEN FOR PRESIDENT-ELECT

Fitting Welcome for President-Elect and Wife Waits Them.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., Dec. 3.—Virginia will extend a fitting welcome to the president-elect and Mrs. Harding on their arrival tomorrow from Panama. From the time they land here from the steamship Pastores, until they leave the Old Dominion for Washington, D. C., after a two day's visit, Virginian hospitality will hold sway and politicos will be forgotten.

Hampton Roads cities will honor the newly-elected president during Saturday. The western part of the state will extend its welcome on Sunday when he visits the Elks national home at Bedford City to deliver the annual memorial address before the Elks from all parts of the country.

Landing tomorrow at Newport News, the President-elect and Mrs. Harding will visit the ship yards where a number of naval craft, including three great battleships and two battle cruisers, are under construction. Afterward a public reception will be held in the academy of music and it is expected the president-elect will make an address. A tour will follow through the business section of the city and as the party passes under the victory arch the school children and boy scouts assembled there will extend their greeting. After a luncheon in his honor at a hotel, the president-elect and his party will cross Hampton Roads to visit Norfolk. The afternoon will be spent visiting points of interest in Norfolk with possibly a visit to the navy yard at Portsmouth and the great Hampton Roads naval training station. A dinner in honor of Mr. Harding will be given during the evening and later it is expected he will address a meeting arranged by the reception committee. The president-elect and his party will leave Norfolk about 11 p. m. on a special train which will reach Bedford City early Sunday morning.

Mr. Harding and his party will leave Bedford City in time to reach Washington at noon Monday.

Harding Nears Home.

ON BOARD THE STEAMSHIP PASTORES. (By wireless to the Associated Press), Dec. 3.—Cool weather greeted President-elect and Mrs. Warren G. Harding today. The steamer Pastores, on which they are returning to Norfolk from Colon, was off the Carolinas this morning and in spite of a heavy wind from the north she was making good headway. The steamer, however, is behind her schedule and it is uncertain at what hour she will dock at Norfolk. It was predicted today that she would be in by noon. Harding and his party appeared clad in warmer garments, having discarded the white suits they wore while in the tropics.

Senator Harding has been urged by some of his friends to spend the winter in some southern state, where there are better hotels and railway facilities, which are assuming some importance in view of the number of callers expected to wait on the president-elect. Hot Springs, Virginia, White Sulphur Springs and the various Florida resorts have been suggested, but it was said today that no decision had been reached. Both Senator and Mrs. Harding are understood to favor remaining in Marion during the coming winter, if practicable.

Red Cross Helps Ex-Soldiers Who Have Bees Disabled

The honor of being the first to enroll for the 1920 Red Cross roll call of Pontotoc county chapter goes to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gallamore, former residents of Ada, but now of Cushing. The roll call campaign will not open actively in this county until next week, but Mr. and Mrs. Gallamore wanted to come in early to show their appreciation of the Red Cross. Their renewals were received yesterday by Mrs. Orville Sneed, home service secretary for Pontotoc chapter.

Helping Ex-soldiers.

A representative of the Evening News called at Red Cross headquarters this morning and found Mrs. Sneed busy with a big pile of government papers.

"Applications for compensation for former service men," she said by way of explanation. Seven such applications were filed with Mrs. Sneed yesterday to be sent to Washington.

It seems that many of the boys who were disabled while in the service do not know that they are entitled to compensation until they are once more well. This is especially true of some of the boys who live far out in the country. Some of these have been languishing at home with sickness, not knowing that Uncle Sam is ready to send them to hospitals to be treated, and at the same time pay them for the time they are disabled.

Mrs. Sneed is making a special effort to reach all such cases in order to give what relief she can. "The hardships of army life told heavily on many of our boys," Mrs. Sneed said this morning, "and many have developed lung trouble since leaving the service. These, too, are entitled to compensation and treatment, and we are ready to help them get both whenever we can learn of such a case."

Broken arches, inflammatory rheumatism, shell shock and nerve trouble are some of the cases that frequently come to the attention of the Red Cross here, but most of the disabled boys have contracted tuberculosis, it seems, as a result of their camp life.

Mrs. Sneed has a number of cases in her books also, of boys who were wounded in action, and of those who fell facing the enemy.

The Red Cross stands ready to help the families of all the boys. Pontotoc county will not be unmindful of "The Greatest Mother on Earth" when the roll call campaign opens.

SUPPORT URGED FOR HEALTH SEAL SALE BY MAYOR

Issues Proclamation Asking Aid in Stamping Out White Plague.

Mayor Gary Kitchens, in a proclamation issued yesterday, calls upon the people of Ada to support the sale of the tuberculosis health seals which started Dec. 1, to last until Dec. 15. The mayor's proclamation follows:

Proclamation.

"Whereas Tuberculosis, the Great White Plague, strikes down 3,000 citizens of Oklahoma every year, many of them fathers, mothers and children of this city, and

Whereas, there are at least 40,000 active cases of tuberculosis in Oklahoma, of which from 3,000 to 4,000 may be expected to die every year, and

Whereas, these active cases of tuberculosis not only represent a pitiful waste of human life and efficiency, but are also a menace to every healthful citizen in this city and state, and

Whereas, the principal agency engaged in fighting tuberculosis in the Oklahoma Public Health Association which, with its branches and affiliated organizations, conducts free public health clinics, supports nurses, field workers and furnishes medical personnel, and

Whereas, in addition to this free service, the Oklahoma Public Health Association is engaged in a constant campaign of education among adults and school children to show them how they can avoid contracting the disease and spreading it to others, and

Whereas, virtually the sole support of the Oklahoma Public Health Association is money received from the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals which will be on sale in this city and county from December 1 to 15.

Whereas, 50 per cent of the money thus raised is spent for health work in the county in which it originates; 45 per cent in the state and 5 per cent in the nation.

Now therefore, I, Gary Kitchen, Mayor of Ada, Oklahoma, do hereby call upon the citizens of Ada and Pontotoc county to support the Tuberculosis Christmas seal sale from December 1 to 15, and to buy all of these life-saving seals they and their families can afford."

Ada Odd Fellows Entertain Visiting Francis Members

The Ada Odd Fellows were hosts to a large number of Francis Odd Fellows last night, when they met to put on the work in the first and second degree to a class of twelve. The local members turned out in force and the hall was packed. It was a late hour before the meeting was adjourned and a luncheon was served to the visitors and members before leaving for home.

The local Odd Fellows are glad to have visitors and proved themselves to be very able entertainers. The Francis people returned home last night.

Word that a big nut crop with cheaper quotations was assured with a decline in other candy products brought the 20 per cent cut dealers said.

We haven't noticed the decline in Ada. Wonder why?

THOMAS EDISON'S WIFE SERVING ON ALL-STAR JURY

Mrs. Thomas A. Edison.

Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, wife of the famous electrical wizard and long identified in civic undertakings, is serving as chief of a jury of prominent women in Jersey City. The jury is hearing the case of Jack Segall, charged by the New Jersey state board of registration and examination in dentistry with illegally practicing a crude art on the molars of several persons.

FARMERS OFFER HALF COTTON TO PICKERS

"Farmers in many cotton growing sections of Oklahoma are offering pickers one-half the proceeds for the cotton they pick," says J. A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture, in his monthly bulletin issued today. "I look for influenza to gain a foothold as soon as protracted cold weather arrives and many isolated cases probably will be reported to my department before the end of the year," Dr. Lewis said. "I do not expect, however, that the spread of the disease will in any way compare with the epidemics of the last few years, and the disease will be of a much milder form."

"February and March, next year, I believe will be the months in which the crest of the disease will be reached. Contrary to opinion of other medical officers that influenza will not return this year and next spring to any serious extent, I am of the opinion that a disease such as influenza cannot die and become extinct in such a short period. Influenza has been too deep-rooted and the germ too widely scattered to disappear in the source of a summer and fall. It is a disease that does not, through study of it, die off on such short notice."

Dr. Lewis stated that it was his belief that the disease would be prevalent to some extent for the next few years, declining more in effect as the seasons changed. Extinction of the disease would come gradually, in his estimation, each year the force of the disease showing an appreciable loss.

ARTICLE 10 MAY BE STRICKEN OUT

Resolution Is Expected at End of Present Session of Assembly.

(By the Associated Press)

GENEVA, Dec. 3.—Presentation and adoption of a resolution for the elimination of article 10 from the covenant of the league of nations at the end of the present session of the assembly, would occasion no surprise here, it was declared in some quarters when the assembly began its meeting this morning.

Assertions were made that yesterday's decision of the committee on the admission of new states, which held in effect that the article does not guarantee the territorial integrity of any member of the league, represented the view of a majority of the delegates at the present meeting. This interpretation and the postponement of certain changes in the covenant were the principal topics of conversation here today.

Argentina May Withdraw.

Buenos Aires, Dec. 3.—Rejection of the assembly of the league of nations of Argentina's proposal in favor of the admission of all countries to the league may result in the withdrawal of this country from the organization, it was learned here last night. It was said that a cabledgram was expected from the Argentina foreign minister and chief of the Argentine delegates at Geneva notifying the government of its decision.

Mrs. Wetherington Home.

Mrs. T. T. Wetherington, who has been in a hospital at Oklahoma City for several weeks recovering from an operation, arrived home over the south bound Katy this morning. Mrs. Wetherington was accompanied home by her husband who went to the city yesterday. We are glad to report that she is almost recovered from her illness and will soon be able to again mingle with her many friends in the city.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, DECEMBER 3.

Frank L. Ketch, administrator of the estate of the late Jake L. Hamon of Ardmore, is believed to be in the west Texas oil fields today. He registered at a local hotel late yesterday and is reported to have left at 10 o'clock last night, presumably for Ranger and Breckinridge where Hamon held large railroad, oil refinery and banking interest. Efforts to interview Ketch while here were unsuccessful.

While there was nothing authentic to connect Ketch's visit to west Texas with Clara Smith, the missing woman wanted in connection with the fatal shooting of Jake L. Hamon at Ardmore on November 21st, it was recalled that the last apparently correct report of her whereabouts was at Cisco. Cisco is situated near Ranger and it was there that E. W. Sallis, a Dallas chauffeur, is reported to have told the county attorney of Ardmore that he conveyed "a young woman," whom authorities are endeavoring to identify as Miss Smith.

Mrs. Hamon to Chicago.

ARDMORE, Dec. 3.—Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, widow of the late representative national committeeman of Oklahoma, will leave Ardmore this afternoon on her return to Chicago, with her two children, Olive Bell and Jake L. Jr., where the county attorney of Ardmore told her he conveyed "a young woman," whom authorities are endeavoring to identify as Miss Smith.

Ada Soon To See What Really Is Up In Miss Mabel's Room

Do women love to torment men as much as they love to torment and tease one another? Does a woman really ever know what her motives are and exactly what she intends to do? These are two of the fascinating problems presented to audiences in "Up in Mabel's Room," the funniest and most original farce of the decade which A. H. Woods will present at the McSwain theatre on Thursday, Dec. 9, for an engagement of one night only from a year's run in New York and Boston. "Up in Mabel's Room" has been aptly described as a frivolous farce of feminine foibles. It is in three casts and the work of Wilson Collison and Otto Harbach. The action transpires in the country home of Arthur Weldon on Long Island. Here Garry and his bride have come to spend their honeymoon. Unfortunately, Weldon has invited other guests, among them a fascinating widow named Mabel of whom Garry was fond in his bachelor days and who reciprocated his affection. Mabel has in her possession a pink chemise—a gift from Garry on which is inscribed "Mabel from Garry." Now Mabel isn't mean, but she is certainly mischievous and she conceived a sudden desire to show Garry's present to his bride. It therefore becomes imperative that Garry recover the chemise by hook or crook. Persuasions fail, so he resorts to theft. Have you ever tried stealing a lady's chemise? If you want to realize the difficulties and embarrassments in the way, and at the same time, store up enough laughter to tide you over your next income tax report, see "Up in Mabel's Room" when it comes to the McSwain theatre.

Governor Urged to Pay Heed to Farmer's Needs

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—The thousands of "little men" are the farmers who need aid, Governor Parker of Louisiana declared in an address today before the national conference of governors in session here. Many of the small farmers, he said, never have had the opportunity to learn what real co-operative work means and many are not newspaper readers and have no knowledge of the improved methods of handling and shipping their products.

"They are anxious and willing to remain on the farm," the Louisiana governor said, "because it is all they know, but if unable to make a living for themselves and their children, they will follow the current and drift to the cities."

"Farmers," Governor Parker asserted, "have been stuffed so full of theory and expert book knowledge which has failed to work out practically, that many of them are disgusted and disheartened."

He defined their need as "common sense assistance."

More economical and improved methods of marketing were urged by Governor Parker. A careful study should be made of the great markets of the country, he asserted, and a determined effort made to see that perishables especially are promptly transported and congestion obviated as much as possible.

"In the great central markets," he said, "the government should have at least two experts who should work in co-operation with a committee from the board of trade to see that there is no loss or useless waste of perishables."

Governor Parker told the conference that farmers could not be expected to possess expert knowledge of business and transportation and that the government, in conjunction with the states, should establish a thoroughly practicable system to stabilize prices for agricultural products.

Local Automobile Dealers

Dull Week But—
One of the dullest weeks of the season is reported by car dealers for the past seven days. Only one sale was made, but most of the boys are of the opinion that the long drought is about to be broken and the prediction is made that if the good weather continues there will be something doing in the old town before Santa Claus shows up in his sleigh.

While very few car sales have been made during the past few weeks each of the garages report increased business in the workshops and this helps to keep attention centered on the doughnut and diversion from the hole.

A manager of one of the large sales companies in commenting on the car sales situation waxed poetic and remarked that "we live in hope and die in despair," but it is hoped that the coming week will place a new song in the hearts of the salesmen.

Harvey Reports One Sale.
W. E. Harvey reports the sale and delivery to the Ada Milling company of a Ford truck.

Baker-Riedt Leave Ada.

Sudden Service Enlarges.
The Sudden Service Station will occupy the whole of the building which was shared with the Baker-Riedt company until recently at 113 North Broadway. The partitions have been removed and all of the floor space thrown together. The front is to be remodeled the first of next week and a large door put in so cars can drive in the front way. This company will be prepared to store, wash and repair cars of all kinds in addition to the work that has been done by them.

HOG CHOLERA QUICKLY CHECKED IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 3.—Hog cholera broke out in practically all parts of the state during the month of October but through means applied by the state department of agriculture in combatting the disease it was kept from spreading and was soon in control. Dr. C. F. Harrington, state inspector, announced in a report issued here. In most cases the hogs were treated near the infected spots. Dr. Harrington said, thus preventing any spread of the disease in adjacent territory.

EX-EMPEROR OF GERMANY SERIOUSLY ILL

Augusta Victoria, ex-empress of Germany.

According to dispatches from Doorn, Holland, where ex-Kaiser Wilhelm and the ex-kaisserin are in exile, the former empress of the German empire is seriously ill and little hope is held for her recovery. Her five sons and daughter are visiting her one at a time so that the visits will not excite her. The ex-empress, Augusta Victoria, has been in poor health for many years, being forced to forego court social functions as far back as 1912. Regret and grief over the fate of Germany in the World war and the loss of millions of her countrymen in the conflict have weighed heavily. The crowning blow was the forced flight of her husband—beaten and in disrepute in his own land—to the sheltering countryside of Holland. It was just two years ago this month that the former German war arrived in Holland.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Show Is Praised.
Nothing but praise is heard for 'Up in Mabel's Room,' the musical comedy which comes to the McSwain theater December 9. It's a show which has made good on big time, and the press reports which have followed the present company indicate that it is continuing to make good.

Manager Foster McSwain of the McSwain theater received the following telegram this morning from the manager of a theater at Coffeyville, Kan.:

"Up in Mabel's Room" played to the largest audience we have had this season. It was a show that pleased. Not a dull moment in the entire performance.—J. B. Tackett, Manager."

The other society was named "The Philadelpia," and the following officers were chosen: Floyd Laird, president; Mike Berick, vice-president, and Don Evans, secretary-treasurer. A committee was appointed to choose colors for the society.

Both societies will meet Friday morning from 11 o'clock to noon and regular meetings will be held each second Friday after that.

A picture show will be had at the high school tonight. A special program has been arranged to be given at the time. The Band, Orchestra and Girls Glee Club will all join in helping to make this program a success.

Come out and see the fun.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED TO PUT OUT GRASS FIRE

The fire department was called to 600 East 9th this morning and found the dry Bermuda grass in the front yard burning in a manner that endangered the home of C. H. McKellar.

Mrs. McKellar had started the fire to get rid of the dry grass which has been a menace for some time because of the possibility of it catching fire from discarded cigarette stubs that are sometimes carelessly thrown in the yard by persons passing. A strong wind carried the fire beyond her control, and the department was summoned.

GO TO THEATRE

At the Liberty.

A terrific fight for the life and honor of a woman features "God's Country and the Woman," the picturization of James Oliver Curwood's famous story of the northern timber lands, which may be seen at the Liberty theatre today.

A murderous gang from the Devil's Nest, armed and barricaded in their lair, are waging a losing fight against the enraged woodsmen who have rallied to the aid of the woman. The leader of the gang, seeing fortune turning against him, is about to make his escape, taking the woman with him.

But help comes from an unexpected quarter. When human strength has failed her the woman unleashes the hunting fury of the wolfhounds she has made her strange companions, and they leap to the kill.

It is a thrilling climax to a dramatic story of rare power and vigor. The acting of William Duncan, the featured player, and the all-star cast, the faithfulness of the settings to the atmosphere of the far woods and the simplicity, artistry and charm of Curwood's story and its visualization on the screen make a production that will linger long and vividly in the memory of those who see it.

At the McSwain.

The ever-increasing number of motion picture fans to whom Mary Allison's every reappearance is an event will have the opportunity today at the McSwain theatre to see the golden-haired star enact a part unusual even in the long list of her successes; that of Mary Manchester, heroine of George Kibbe Turner's magazine story, previously printed in The Red Book Magazine.

Since "Fair and Warmer" and later "The Walk-Offs" Miss Allison has done one character calling for emotional expression—that of Vashita the healer, in "The Cheater"; and so tremendously well was this departure from her hitherto lighter media of expression received that she has essayed the difficult task of making the wan little Mary Manchester actually live.

The story, according to advance information, revolves about the conspiracy of two unscrupulous bankers to retain possession of a rich young widow's fortune. When she dies they engaged a young girl who resembles the woman whose money they still seek to hold in trust.

Direction has been entrusted to John E. Ince; adaptation to Sarah Y. Mason and photography to William Edmund. The cast includes such screen favorites as Darrell Foss, Walter Long, John H. Elliott, Lawrence Grant, G. Burnell Manly, and the remarkable Airedale terrier, Teddy Whack.

At the American.

Those who have watched to see if Wanda Hawley would repeat her remarkable opening success in "Miss Hobbs," had their curiosity gratified last night when her second Realart starring vehicle "Food for Scandal" opened at the American theatre.

This comedy is entirely different from "Miss Hobbs," but Miss Hawley's versatility is given full chance for expression. As Sylvia Figueroa, heiress of a proud old California family, who later becomes "Maybelle Flowers"—"Kissing Girl" of the "Vanity," the star hits upon an entirely new line of comedy than that produced in the story of the super-faddish man-hater. And it need not be said that this tale of Spanish-America and the footlights gives exceptional opportunities for the wearing of beautiful clothes.

Again Harrison Ford appears as leading man, and repeats his great success in "Miss Hobbs." As an impudent young lawyer who eats and sleeps in his own office, he gets a multitude of laughs. Other excellent players include Ethel Grey Terry, Lester Cuneo, Margaret Mc-

Wade, Minnie Prevost, Juan de La Cruz and Sidney Bracey.

The careful attention to detail reflects great credit on the director, James Cruze. "Food for Scandal" was adapted by Edith Kennedy from "Beverly's Balance," by Paul Kester.

An interesting feature of the production is that the "Dane-Figueroa" ranch house of the piece is none other than "Ramona's Home" near San Diego, California—one of the country's most famous historical shrines. It was there that Helen Hunt Jackson's heroine lived after her flight from Temecula and marriage to Alessandro at the old San Diego Mission.

"Food for Scandal" will play again tonight.

The Island of Lundy, off the Bristol Channel, was for many years in the occupation of a man named Heaven, and the place was referred to by sailors as the "Kingdom of Heaven."

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.—Heb. 4:16.

THE UNCERTAINTIES OF FARMING

"It is the uncertainty of farming that causes so many people to leave the farm and move to the city." This is the conclusion of Oklahoma's most successful farmers and best known citizens. He had asked to explain the marked trend of country people cityward.

The farmer never knows what lies ahead of him. He can't lay his plans for a flood or a drouth—he is just as liable to experience one as the other. He doesn't know when he plants his crops whether it will be killed by a late freeze, nipped by an early frost, burned up by a hot wind, beaten to death by hail storms, washed away by floods, overrun by weeds during a wet period, or eaten up by the millions of different kinds of insects. He only knows that there is not a single minute during the year that his crops are not in grave danger of being destroyed.

Then when he has escaped the perils of the growing season and has gone through the added risks of harvesting, he has to face a market that is just as uncertain as the weather. He doesn't know even after his crop is made whether he is going to sell at a profit or loss. He may start to market with his year's produce and lose hundreds of dollars on it while he is driving a dozen miles. Every minute of the twelve months he is surrounded by a cloud of uncertainties.

"One element of uncertainty is his inability to tell just what his crop is costing him. It is surprisingly strange that in spite of the marvelous progress science has made, no man alive can figure just what it costs to produce a bale of cotton. We nowk what it costs to make a brick or broom or plow or railroad or battleship. But the entire department of agriculture can't tell what it costs to put a bale of cotton in such a state of suspense that many farmers finally throw up their hands and leave the farm in disgust."

The farmer who gave us this opinion might be classed as an agriculturist. He owns one of the finest farms in Oklahoma. He is known as one of the ablest men in Oklahoma. He is a leader among the people of the state. And it is interesting to note that in spite of all the vexing uncertainties that he mentioned he has stayed with the farm and has prospered.

The manufacturers Record mentions an ancient legend concerning the Angel of Petitions and the Angel of Thanksgiving. According to this legend the two angels come down to earth each morning to collect the petitions and the thanks of the people of the world. Always the Angel of Petitions returns each night to heaven heavily laden with the wants and wishes of the world. Oftentimes the Angel of Thanksgiving returns at night empty handed. The sons of men know what they want but often fail to appreciate what they receive. Only one of the blind men whose sight was restored returned to thank the Master.

We also notice that the state fire marshall is going to ask the legislature to enlarge his department by giving him branch offices in six cities of the state and to give him a larger office force in the state capitol. This is one department that has almost given the state value received. While it has spent some hundred thousand dollars it has come darned near catching a barn burner once upon a time.

Our idea of a false prophet is the editor who predicts that the next legislature is going to devote a lot of time to good roads legislation. Our own observation is that about all the legislators we are acquainted with are gun shy on the subjects of roads and road bonds and such like.

The prize optimist is the man who hopes that President Obregon can convert the twenty million half civilized citizens of Mexico into law abiding, peace loving people in a few months time.

We wonder how much fight to abolish secret diplomacy has to do with the effort being made to have women appointed diplomats to foreign countries.

Bill Blessing, the newly appointed postmaster of Shawnee, may not be a blessing in disguise, but it may improve his appearance some.

Tuesday was the last day of November. But the first Tuesday in November was the last day of the month for a lot of the faithful.

Another Car Is Founded In the South Canadian

(Continued from Page One.) treacherous stream and water holes and quicksand beds develop quickly in the channel making it very dangerous for those who undertake to cross it.

A number of just such accidents as the one which occurred last night have occurred at the same location during the past six months and no doubt will continue to happen until the bridge is rebuilt.

The South Canadian is the boundary line between Pontotoc and Seminole counties and the Byng bridge was built jointly by the two counties and the state highway department. It is said that the two counties and the state highway department must cooperate in repairing the bridge, but apparently all that has been done to get the work started has been a number of conferences which have resulted in absolutely no action.

It is alleged that the Pontotoc county commissioners have tried for some time to get the commissioner's of Seminole county and the state highway department busy on the work and have offered to do their part in rebuilding the bridge but that they have received very little satisfaction or encouragement from the other parties.

Six months of this "do nothing" policy has long taxed the patience of those of the two counties who find it necessary to travel the Konawa-Ada road and patience has ceased to be a virtue.

The Evening News will conduct an investigation with the end in view of discovering just who is at fault for this long delay, and will print the results of this investigation in a future issue.

Second Oil Sand Struck in Well Northwest of Ada

ANOTHER oil sand was struck in the Carter, Nance, LaSelle well Wednesday night at 164-5 while drilling at 1,060 feet. Operations were stopped pending the arrival of the owners who are expected to reach Ada today.

The other sand was struck at 1,008 feet and a good showing of oil and a healthy pressure of gas was made. No actual test was made of the quantity of oil discovered in the first sand but it is estimated at 50 barrels.

While waiting for a shipment of tubing with which to operate a pump and test the first sand it was decided to drill through the sand and continue the drilling to the next oil sand which they expected to reach at about 1,280 feet.

This second sand has not been drilled into and it is not known just what sand it is as only an imperfect log was kept of the wells which were drilled in the locality previously.

THOSE WHO DESIRE TO BECOME CHARTER MEMBERS OF ADA'S FIRST BATTALION OF ARTILLERY MUST JOIN THAT ORGANIZATION BETWEEN NOW AND NEXT TUESDAY IN ORDER TO HAVE THEIR NAMES PLACED ON THE HONOR ROLL.

After a meeting at the city hall last night Captain Penney announced that forty-four of the required fifty members had been secured and the remaining six men will be lined up by next Tuesday night.

So certain is Captain Penney that the battery will be recruited to full force that he has wired Adjutant General Charles F. Barrett to come to Ada and muster the battery in. It is not known definitely at this time when the adjutant general will come to do this work but it will be done in the near future.

A meeting will be held at the city hall next Tuesday evening at 7:30, and at that time doctors will be on hand to conduct physical examination. Each applicant must submit to this examination and all should be on hand at this meeting.

SMILE AWHILE

Recouping Their Losses.
"I hear you have been abroad." "I've just returned," said the wealthy American.
"How's the work of reconstruction going on?"

"It ought to be going on splendidly. The tip pirates must have gotten enough money out of me to restore several French villages." — Birmingham Age-Herald.

Yellow, Too.
"Why is a lemon pie like an army slacker?"
"Oh, go on, get it over with." "Hasn't got enough crust to go over the top." — American Legion Weekly.

The Non-Union Armistice.
"The armistice has been signed!" shrieked the runner from headquarters as he came bursting into the billet on the edge of the Argonne two years ago. "The war was over at 11 o'clock this morning."

But the crap king of the regiment registered only disgust.
"Looka here," he retorted with a great show of belligerency. "Maybe it was over at 11, but I'm gonna see that I get a full day's pay out of it just the same." — American Legion Weekly.

Nothing Much.
"What's in your traveling bag?" asked the customs officer of the demure damsel.
"Oh, nothing," said the maid. "Just some week-end wearing apparel." — Buffalo Express.

A Child's Reproach.
He was not a kind husband, and one of his favorite ways of teasing his wife was to tell her which of the women of their acquaintance he would select as her successor when she died. He went even further than this one day; he called his little daughter to him and said: "Madeline, how would you like to have a stepmother?"

The child considered a moment,

then, turning away, she replied:
"I think I'd much rather have a stepfather." — Boston Transcript.

Compact Furniture.
"Can't you do some of this writing at home?" asked the busy employer.

"No, without keeping the family awake," replied the secretary. "The writing desk is attached to the folding bed." — Washington Star.

The Matter With Him.
"Come, now! Don't look so miserable," said a Tumlinville photographer. "Just pretend in your mind that you are going to get married tomorrow."

"Dad burn the dad burned luck," returned the Arkansas sitter. "That's presily what I am going to do."

Pussy the Job Does.
Gretchen: "Mutter, rat has into the milk fallen."

Mutter: "And did you it out take?"

Gretchen: "No, but I have the cat in after it thrown and when she ate it has, I will her out lug."

Meritorious Service.
"Yep," said the honest ex-buck.

"I spent 14 months in the lines without any relief."

"But I didn't know you were at the front at all," said his uncle.

"I wasn't," replied the buck. "but I spent eight months in the inspection line and one month in the pay line." — Home Sector.

Still Worse.

First Girl—What can be more aggravating than a man who tells you of his love and never mentions matrimony.

Second Girl—A man who tells you of his money and never mentions matrimony. — Boston Transcript.

The old-time saloon used to close up at midnight and put their customers out on the marble waving sidewalk. The boys would dance home. But the home brewer never closes up and goes home because he is there in the first place.

Dear Sirs:
Having found Rub-a-Cold so effective I take pleasure in writing an unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

Last winter my little boy was threatened with the croup several times but I always applied Rub-a-Cold as soon as he showed any symptoms.

My sister came to visit us bringing her 3 year old son who had a bad case of croup. I used Rub-a-Cold and he got instant relief and was soon asleep. We are never without it in the house.

Yours very truly,

SPLENDID MESSAGE GIVEN AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH LAST NIGHT

A good meeting was held last night at the Christian church. Those who missed it were surely the losers. A fine solo was sung by Mrs. Anna Ingram. The evangelist laid great stress on the folly of rejecting God. He spoke with special emphasis on the sin of allowing riches to keep one away from God. Riches are temporal at best, and one day we must leave them and what will they avail in the day of judgment? There surely is a hell. Jesus spoke of it. "If there were not a hell," said the evangelist, "I would be willing to invest what little I have to make one." We have the hospital to take care of the sick, and the cemetery to separate the dead bodies from the living. So there will be a hell to separate the wicked from the righteous. It was a strong appeal to accept the love of God, and escape the awful doom of the sinner who dies in his sins. Hell was not made for us. It was made for the Devil and his angels. If we are lost with them, it will be because we have chosen the evil, rebellious way.

At the close of the message which held the audience in rapt attention, the ordinance was observed. A ten-year-old boy was baptized—Kermitt Gregory. He had made the confession the night before. He has been for a short time a member of the "L. of J."

Service for Old Folks.

As a part of the evangelistic meeting being conducted at the Christian church, there will be a service for old folks Friday afternoon at 2:30. A prize will be given to the oldest man and the oldest woman, and one to the person who has longest been a follower of Christ. A message will be delivered by the evangelist. Persons of all ages are welcome and invited to this service. If there is any one who would like to come to this service and has no way to come, such person should call 94 or 246.

A wal will be provided for all, especially the aged.

Service for Young Folks.

There will be another service at the Christian church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 for children. A message will be delivered, and a prize will be given to the youngest boy or girl. All children, whether affiliated with the Christian Church or not, are more than welcome to this service. The service for old people is open to all, whether members of any church or not. All persons of all ages are welcome to both of these special services.

Church of Christ.

The evangelist read from Matt. 30 last night, and announced in advance that one of the greatest lessons ever intended for man was about to be delivered to his hearers.

"Not greatest," he said, "because I am the preacher tonight, but because the sinless Son of Almighty God spoke the words of this lesson, and spoke them in such simple terms that the wayfaring man, though he be a fool, need not misunderstand them."

After a most beautiful introduction to the leading thoughts of the hour, the evangelist said in part: "The perpetuity of everything is found in the seed that produces. An acorn, carelessly tossed aside and devoured, carried to its death the germ that would cover the earth with forests, and the seas with ships. The egg, eaten or wasted, carries in its casket the life that would fill the feathered songsters and each songster in turn holds the unimpeachable law of its Supreme Maker, to give to the world eggs, and so we go. My Lord says here that the seed of the kingdom is the word of God. In another place He calls the children of the kingdom the seed. We say we planted our cotton; we mean we planted seed that grows cotton. The seed that produces God's children, children of the kingdom, is the word of God. No seed will ever germinate until it comes in contact with a like principle or nature. The grain of wheat planted in a barrel of salt would not come up. There is no like principle there. Wheat must come in contact with earth, warmth and moisture in order that it germinate and grow. God placed in man, when He made him a principle of Himself, intellect and reason. This is why he is man. So far as flesh creation is concerned, man stands upon a level with beasts. Beasts have flesh, instinct and passion; so has man. But man has that which no beast ever has possessed, and, indeed, can never possess. If you will place intelligence and reason in the horse yonder, I will make him understand this sermon as you understand it."

The heart of man, his intellect, affection and will, is the soil into which the seed of the kingdom must be planted. There the seed comes in contact with a like principle, given of God, and as a result germinates and springs into life. Result, a Christian.

I am glad that since we have in the earth the doctrine of total depravity, that it came not from God, nor from real reasoning. Why, God bless you, there is part of God in every normal soul on this earth. God breathed into him breath from His own vitalizing nostrils. If you would raise a crop, Mormons come from mormanism. Catholics come from the seeds of that monster mother of heretics, Rome. 'Ists' and 'ites' are not the logical product of God's word, the seed of His house and of His kingdom. Let us sow the precious treasure broadcast all over the land, and men will sit at the feet of Jesus Christ and learn of His wonderful ways. Thieves will cease to steal, and our whole land will become the kingdom of God and of His Christ."

These meetings are increasing in interest each day. The preacher declares that this church will go over the top in spite of themselves if they keep up their present standard of interest. Brother Henley left at 9:10 last night on the Frisco to meet his wife and little son, Joe Warick, at Denison. He will return at 4 p.m. and be ready to give us another great sermon on the "Drawing Device of God."

It Came Freely
From the Depths
Of Our Heart

Did you read the criticism in Wednesday's issue of the Evening News on the Band Box review which had been showing at the McSwain theater? Well, we want to say that it was not paid advertising. Manager McSwain had nothing to do with the publishing of the article, nor did any member of the troupe, which has since left town, bring any special or undue influence to bear to induce us to say what we did about the show. No, it was not Mac's fault.

Ada Seed & Feed Co., Phone 697.

Mac's smiling face was one of 11-3-1m.

the first seen over the counter at the News office this morning, and he requested us to make this statement to put him in the clear.

Perhaps we owe it to the public to make some statement as to how the article came to be written. It happened like this: There was nothing doing in the way of news. The old town was on the quiet. There was nothing else to do, and "Band Box Review" sounded good. So it was decided that the show should come in for a bit of attention. The guy who "covered" the show has not felt quite well since, but he will recover.

No, it was not Mac's fault.

STATE'S PECAN CROP IS SHORT THIS YEAR

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 3.—Oklahoma returned but 15 per cent of a full crop of pecans in 1920 as against 91 per cent for 1919. The heavy decrease in the percentage was due to the severe freeze in April, according to a report issued by the federal bureau of crop estimates and the state department of agriculture. The National report on pecan production showed a big decrease in all states growing pecans, the report states.

The number of trees of bearing age in the state, as compared with last year, was estimated as 94 per cent in the report, although the quality of the nuts this year is given as favorable with that of last year.

Oklahoma usually markets one-fourth of its pecan crop in outside markets.

When your digestion is poor, when your bowels are constive, when your breath is bad, when your stomach is sick or disordered, and you feel languid and low-spirited, Prickly Ash Bitters is decidedly the remedy you need. It cleanses the vital organs, purifies the bowels, and imparts a fine feeling of strength, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.50 per bottle. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Special Agents. Adv.

What Going Up.
CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Steep upturns in the wheat market today attracted unusual notice. At one time prices showed an extreme gain of ten and one-half to eleven cents a bushel, as compared with yesterday's finish, March touching $1.66 1-2 a bushel.

Symptoms of kidney disease should receive instant attention, as neglect is dangerous. If your back aches or you have trouble with the urine, begin taking Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a dependable kidney remedy, particularly beneficial for elderly men. Price $1.50 per bottle. Gwin & Mays, Special Agents. Adv.
